Accommodation:

Gdańsk has a wide range of hostels and hotels with every amenity that might be required. One can find nice, small boutique hotels close to the Medical University, or bigger ones for example by the Motława River, in the Old Town. The list of the suggested places will be available on the website.

General Information about the City:

Gdańsk, with its thousand-year history is located by the Baltic Sea. In the past it was at the crossroads of important commercial and communication routes, an extensive port with mercantile traditions. All this had made Gdańsk a meeting place of many cultures and nationalities.

Today it is a living and colourful city, one of the most attractive places to visit in Europe, with many interesting places and venues about art, history, science and much more.

Participants can get here:

- by plane (Lech Walesa Gdańsk Airport), Warsaw Chopin Airport and then train to Gdańsk
- by train (Gdańsk Główny Railway Station),
- by ferry (Gdynia and Gdańsk Port)
- or by car using the highways (paid).

In June the usual temperature varies from 15 to 25 degrees C.

Attending Meeting will also give You the opportunity to learn more about Gdańsk, Pomerania and Poland.
